Notes: Read by Sean Runnette.

Notes: John Maxwell firmly points to attitude as the key in making or breaking a leader. Leadership has less to do with position than i way the followers think and feel. Great leaders understand that the right attitude will set the right atmosphere, which enables t what shapes a person's attitude and whether or not attitude can be changed. He addresses the common feeling of failure and success as a journey rather than a destination, he explains, is the key to good leadership. He concludes Attitude 101 with pract level. --- from publisher's description.
